About the Author:

Mari Campbell isn't just wild about animals and all the lessons they can teach human beings in their lives, she's totally crazy about her English Springer, Maggie. As the founder of the award-winning blog, MaggieMooseTracks®, Campbell is now sharing both true and fiction adventure stories and lessons for life all centered on, and inspired by, her number-one canine companion and best friend, Maggie.

"With my MaggieMooseTracks® book series I want kids (and adults) to learn that 'moose size pawsabilities are pawsable!' Our slogan is: 'Living life with moose size pawsabilities around the world'. In fact, we're read in over 87+ countries around the world," says Campbell.

Read all of the books in the MaggieMooseTracks® adventure book series: Book 1, MaggieMooseTracks® Making Friends, Book 2, MaggieMooseTracks® Christmas Star, Book 3, MaggieMooseTracks® Wolf Pack, and Book 4, MaggieMooseTracks® Humgator Tails (due Spring 2014). All books explore issues kids face in life and come with full color illustrations in a chapter book format. For more fun see Maggie & her friends on her website: www.MaggieMooseTracks.com
